FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Terry Goddard to be Honored by Arizona Consumers Council

(Phoenix, Ariz. – April 5, 2006) Attorney General Terry Goddard will receive the Currin V. Shields Award by the Arizona Consumers Council at the group's 40th anniversary dinner on Thursday evening, April 6. The award recognizes Goddard, his staff and his office's publications that have provided valuable assistance to Arizona consumers.

The late Currin V. Shields was president of the Arizona Consumers Council from 1969 to 1980. In 1973, he started the national Conference of Consumer Organizations.

The Arizona Consumers Council dinner will be held at the Mountain Preserve Reception Center, 1431 E. Dunlap, Phoenix. For more information about the event, please contact the Arizona Consumers Council at 602-331-0747.
